
Charities and Not-for-Profit Entities

Law and Practice

Cecile Gillard

Contents

Preface		xvii
1	The Essentials of Charities and Not-for-Profits	1
1.1	What is a 'charity'?	1
1.1.1	Charitable purposes – England and Wales (Charities Act 2011)	1
1.1.2	Recreational and similar trusts	3
1.1.3	Community amateur sports clubs (registered sports clubs)	3
1.1.4	Charitable purposes – Scotland (Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005)	4
1.1.5	Charitable purposes – Northern Ireland (Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008)	5
1.1.6	The essential nature of charities	6
1.1.7	Other key features of charities	6
1.2	Charity law and regulation	7
1.2.1	Charities Act 2011	7
1.2.2	The role of the courts	8
1.2.3	First Tier Tribunal (Charities) – England and Wales	8
1.2.4	Charity Commission	8
1.2.5	Charity law and regulation in Scotland and in Northern Ireland	9
1.3	Charity registration	9
1.4	Social enterprises	10
1.4.1	Community interest companies	10
1.4.2	The community interest test	11
1.4.3	Regulation and accountability	12
1.5	Other not-for-profits	12
1.6	Typical legal forms for charities and not-for-profits	12
1.6.1	Key features of the most common legal forms	13
	Unincorporated trust	13
	Unincorporated members' association	13